

SCREAMING WALL Shrieks & Scrawls from a Series Vanishing from View

Big Foot, killed at

Wounded Knee

fotos from Dee Brown's

Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee

The government under pretext of security and progress liberated us from our land, resources, culture, dignity and future. They violated every treaty they ever made with us. I use the word "liberated" loosely and sarcastically, in the same vein that I view the use of the words "collateral damage" when they kill innocent men, women and children. They describe people defending their homelands as terrorists, savages and hostiles . . . My words reach out to the non-Indian: Look now before it is too late—see what is being done to others in your name and see what destruction you sanction when you say nothing. —Leonard Peltier, Annual Message January 2004

Red Cloud in old age

"They made us many promises, more than I can remember, but they never kept but one; they promised to take our land, and they took it."

(my great grandmother alone survived forced displacement of her family and group of Ojibwe herded off of lands--they were given blankets infected with smallpox to keep warm with during long trip to Nowhere my youngest son's Jewish grandfather was a refugee from Berlin & the Nazis in 1939--aged six--but not allowed to enter the USA for a year--refugees were sent first to Cuba--)

GAZA

PHOTO BY RONALD DE HONNEL / PHOTOFACTORY.NL

"There never was such a thing as a Palestinian"
--Golda Meier, BBC interview, 1969

